 my, a strife, 725
 my, is vowed, 711
 nae man has a tack of his, 829 nearer every day to death, 597 no part of, free from duty, 618 no sure thing in, but death, 191 no, without pain, 832
 noble exploits of his, 88

     I, so live I, 196
     ill, they, who think to live always,
     in hearts unborn, 67
     in hearts we leave behind, 67 in peace, adieu! 255

     to, is to think, 710
     to, not to die happily, 713 too fast, 5
     too long, 105
     twice over, to, 552
     twice over, to enjoy the past is to,

     we, not as we desire, but as we can,
     well, 218
     well, to, 173
     well, who does not wish to, 709 when we love we, 91

   a pleasing but various clime, 332 a present for a king, 161 a sister's charms, can, 249 a sorrowful paradise, 77
   a spring of, 85
   a sweet hell, 77
   a thousand ways of making, 589

Love, a victim to delicate, 253 absence increases, 209

 alas for, 159
 all, 288
 all are but ministers of, 84
 all but true, old, 67
 all for, 345
 all hire (her), 75

 allured by words, 523
 ambition is no cure for, 272 amiss, better to, 102
 an episode in man's life, 718 and a cough, 821
 and a red nose, 165
 and a vow and a heart, 259 and approbation, 209
 and be beloved, 350
 and business teach eloquence, 821
 and conversation, 132
 and duty, 364
 and friendship, 375
 and hate, and other sundry things, 78

and hate, how hot are, 385 and have no pity, 127
 and heaven by suffering, 150 and I were well acquainted, 144 and laughter, 679
 and less, 297
 and light and calm thoughts, 86 and lordship, 821
 and majesty do not agree, 613 and murder will out, 90 and not of fame, 359
 and pity for the race, 334 and pride stock Bedlam, 821 and scandal, 132
 and service, with all, 208 and sherry, leave me but, 196 and then part, 86
 and thought and joy, 394 and to be wise, 490
 and war, all's fair in, 754
 as endless prove, 162
 as expecting to hate, 876
 as those we, decay, 375
 as though you might have to hate,

as though you would have to hate,

at first sight, 115
 be bonny, gin, 444
 because a lady fell in, 62
 before thine altar, 338 begets love, 491
 begins at the mind's bidding, 491 begins to sicken, 304
 begot of, 167
 being in love, we, 371
 best to be off wi' the old, 444 best, we can say least to whom we,

better than what is best, 396, 821 bid me, 163
 breaks through, 326
 brief as woman's, 316
 burning terms of, 242
 but fools in, 92
 but her, and love for ever, 46
 but her for ever, 46
 but love in vain, 93

Love, calf, half love, 765

can be wise and, 163
 can canker, 366
 can die, who tell us, 341
 can hope, 200
 can vanquish death, 361 cannot change my, 34
 cannot perish, 735
 casteth out fear, 436
 change old, for new, 240 changing his property, 292
 cheat of, 256
 cherish, and obey, 438
 choose a man you can, 517
 choose your, 766
 clandestine, is ruin, 584 clasp grief, let, 366
 comes and goes one knows not how,

comes in at the windows, 880 comforteth, 326
 common as light is, 330 compel, to what does, 559 compel, what does not, 655
 conciliated by manners and beauty, 592
 confessed a mutual, 254
 confounds right and wrong, 126
 conquers all, 491, 627
 consumes me, 586
 cools, when, faults are seen, 880 creampot, 768
 curable by no herbs, 549
 daring of shameless, 609 deadliest foe to custom, 201 demands only love, 141 desire all good men's, 299 disgraceful in an old man, 695 ditties, 269
 does much, money more, 821 doth to her eyes repair, 277 easily satisfied, and insatiable, 735 embraces all woman's life, 733 endures no concealment, 821 enters gradually, 567
 examine what you, 646
 expelled by love, 127
 extinguished, 179
 fair is my, 328
 fears only anger, 335
 finds admission where science fails,

first sigh of, the last of wisdom, 723 flies out at the window, 880 flies out when misfortune enters, 880 flowers and fruits of, 36 flowery path of, 36
 follow, it will flee, 779 food of, 288
 for contemplating, 277
 for ever wilt thou, 182 forced does not last, 780, 849 forced, ne'er did weel, 778 fostered by despair, lasts, 539 fostered with sweet words, 529 found, gained, and kept, 31 founded on esteem, 132
 free as air, 253
 from a heart that loves liberty, 229 fruitful in honey and gall, 491 full of anxious fear, 664 gains the shrine, 200
 gay, God save it, 379
 gilds the scene, 333
 give me back my heart, 150

- Love gives itself, 193 gives way to business, 649
 God and thine enemy, 520
 God gives us, 361
 goes lowly, 167
 goes out at the postern, 173 good men, 300
 good to be in, sanely, 501 groaning for, 321
 habit causes, 508
 had been a joyous thing, 348 had he found in huts, 395 hail, wedded, 215
 has a thousand notes, 103
 has bidden me write, 670 has na' luck, 821
 has never known a law, 389 has no bounds, 126
 has ordained, what, 656
 he caught at, 380
 he is in, who protests he is not, 651 he laughed to scorn, 326 he would, and she would not, 23 health to all those that we, 463 hearts in, use their own tongues, 280 her the more, I should, 332 her, to, a liberal education, 347 hide thy, 188
 him of our own free will, 546 him once, all did, 304
 him, stuff to make me, 388
 his, breathes, 683
 hot, soon cold, 803
 hours in, have wings, 81
 I cannot, where I'm beloved, 49
 I confess I, and if that is a sin, I confess that, 526
 I have not lost to, 219
 I know not what, 163
 I love my, 84
 I will unwillingly, 623
 if my influence in, was as formerly, 675
 if there's delight in, 91
 if you would be loved, 677 important business of your life, 200 in a hut, 182
 in a palace, 182
 in extremes, 163
 in heavenly spirits, 344
 in his heart, spurs in his sides, 884 in idleness, 288
 in, one begins to deceive oneself, 392 in sin and fear, 57
 in the lowliest cot, 391
 incongruities of, 678
 infinite, 354
 inly touch of, 277
 is a credulous thing, 510 is a medley, 382
 is a sour delight, 383
 is a spirit, all compact, 326 is all in all, 266
 is better than high birth, 327 is blind, 284, 821
 is exactly like war, 348
 is flowerlike, 86
 is free, 77
 is heaven and heaven is love, 272 is his own avenger, 62
 is, if I know what true, 369 is indestructible, 342
 is like linen, 137
 is like our life, 205
 Love is like the measles, 174 is long, 364
 is lost, 161
 is lost, poor, 104
 is love, 362
 is love, in beggars as in kings, 443 is loveliest when embalmed, 271 is maister, 150
 is more than great riches, 199 is not love which alters, 327 is not what it used to be, 821 is, now I know what, 619 is of sœ mickle might, 16 is perfidious, 635
 is prone to idleness, 689 is so different, 34
 is sometimes hurtful, 649 is still here, 229
 is strong as death, 419 is taught by habit, 567 is the fulfilling of the law, 432 is the price of love, 734 is the salt of life, 329 is thin, faults thick when, 778 is, where, there is the eye, 856, 882 it, I love it, I, 92
 it lies not in our power to, 205 joined in equal, 16
 jot of former, 120
 kept under, true, 145
 kill the thing they do not, 284 kiss of youth and, 61
 knoweth no laws, 199
 knows no mean, 138
 knows no rule, 491
 kynde (common love), 189 laughs at locksmiths, 89 learn for to, 190
 learn to, quath kynde, 190 least, they, 277
 let man know their, 277
 let us yield to, 627
 life without, is load, 91 life without, is not life, 731 light in her eye, 84
 lights more fire, 391
 like a shadow flies, 278 like mine must have return, 29 linnet's lay of, 20
 locks flowing, 266
 looks not with the eyes, 282 lost, but upon God, 127 lost the world for, 126 lukewarmness a sin in, 93 made the world, 491
 madrigals, 143
 magic of first, 115
 makes a good eye squint, 821 makes a man a beast, 278 makes all but true, old, 67 makes all equal, 821
 makes all gentle, 821
 makes eloquent, 205
 makes foolish manners, 591 makes inventive, 718
 makes one fit for any work, 821 makes passion, 821
 makes the cottage a palace, 734 makes time pass, 718
 man, I do not, 383
 man who pretended, 515
 man's, 60
 man's, once gone, 368
 many pangs in, 578
 many waters cannot quench, 419

 what ardently we, 409
 what can be done, 661
 what most we, 406
 what the wretched, they believe, 659 what we, we believe, 865

 a dog, and a walnut-tree, 750 a free-tongued, 209
 a good, 210
 a good, nothing better than, 479 a good, quiet, 688

 a very bad, 1
 a very honest, 305
 adorned with a good disposition, 500 an enraged, 544
 an excellent thing in, 307 and glass ever in danger, 750 and hen always gadding, 751 as the good, saith, 758 at its head, without a, 383 be a slave, if, 331 believe not, even when she dies, 469

 every, the same in the dark, 814 finds many contrivances, 477 fine, can do without fine clothes, 742 for the hearth, 364
 for the use of man, 361 for thy more sweet understanding, a, 281 fool that provokes a, 137 four storeys high, 777
 friend, a, 137
 full of woordes, 232
 generally extravagant, 469
 gentlier sister, 43
 good when openly wicked, 493 greatest blessing and plague, 469 greatest value, her beauty, 81 greet, pity to see a, 812 hair of a, 173
 handsome, is soon dressed, 744 hard on woman, 364
 has her way, 166
 has never a soul to save, 169 hath believed, 274
 having lost modesty, refuses nothing, 603 here rests a, 254
 how divine, may be made, 401
 I am a, 287
 I could play the, 310
 I hate a learned, 478
 if alone, meditates evil, 593 in her first passion, 61 in her selfless mood, 369 in't, a, 135
 in our hours of ease, 270 in sex, in abilities a man, 674 in this humour won, 298 is a brief of womankind, 238 is at heart a rake, 248 is his game, 364

Woman is ill when she chooses, 587 is made of glass, 738
 lays his hand upon a, 376 little as she is good, 805 look for the, 714
 love of, and a bottle of wine, 860 lovely, 148
 lovely woman, 238
 loves, as, 188
 made to temper man, 238 more compassionate than, 66 more than, to be wise, 232 moved, a, 288
 muse was born of, 166
 never vexed, 267
 never yet fair, 306
 no evil so terrible as, 476 no immoral, who is not bad, 613 no man half so true as, 76 no man in humblesse, as a, 76 no possession better than a good, 469
 no purgatory but a, 135
 no redemption knows, 227 nor linen by candle-light, 766 nothing better than a good, 77 nothing lovelier in, 217 of education, 379
 of every ill the worst, 150 of no importance, 392
 of wealth most unbearable, 567 one of Nature's blunders, 94 one of the great institooshuns, 25 one, reads another, 181
 one that was a, 318
 one to show a, 31
 one tongue enough for a, 838 only cowards affront a, 132 oweth to her husband, 288 paint, when you see a, 882 paradise and hell in the word, 733 perfected, a, 197
 perfection of a, 298
 rather be called a good, than a happy, 500
 rejoices in revenge, 707 rules them still, 21
 rules us still, 231
 scorned, 91
 secret known through, 126
 seduces all mankind, 141 sees the man, 260
 seldom asks advice, 2
 shallow, changing, 299
 she's but a, 135
 she was a dumpy, 169
 ship and a, 748
 should stand by woman, 469 silence in, 180
 smiled, sighed, till, 65
 so mere a, 266
 still be a, 239
 sweren and lien as a, 75 talk to, as if you loved her, 392 that cries hush, 357
 that deliberates, 1
 the cause of all quarrels, 617
 the cause of evil, 583
 the leader a, 524
 the malice of a, 424
 the only, who pleases me, 694 therefore may be wooed, 325 therefore to be won, 297
 this, a bad bargain, 363 to be gained by flattery, 78

Woman, to no, her own appearance displeasing, 618
 to obey, 364
 to rule, requires talents, 138
 tow, 823
 trust a, 135
 trust a fool and a, 135 trusts, who to a, 150
 wakeful woman, 16
 wakes to love, 369
 we love, always in the right, 722 weak in intellect, 338
 weep, pity to see a, 758 what a stranger (things) is, 63 when to ill thy mind, 256
 when truly chaste, 676
 whistling, 750
 who always was tired, 446 who cheats a, 141
 who isn't can read a, 308 who lost Mark Antony the world, 238 who loved him the best, 185 whom thou mad'st, 218
 will, or won't, 164
 with a past, 457
 work for oneself and a, 186 would rather be beautiful, 776 wronged can cherish hate, 389 you may find a worse, 535 Woman's always younger than a man, 27 at best a contradiction, 249 best ornament, silence, 848 breast not won by sighs, 52 cause is man's, 365
 constancy is all my eye, 263 counsel not worth much, 751 envy, 150
 eyes, 136
 first advice, take a, 846 glories, sphere of, 231 hair long; her tongue longer, 751 happiest knowledge, 215 heart like a mirror, 722 heart yields to flattery, 191 life, love embraces all, 733 life, love the history of, 718 locks long, wits short, 820 love can win, 220
 love is writ in water, 7 meannesses, 372
 mind and the wind change oft, 751 mind, move a, 277
 mood, fantastic as a, 271
 nay is no denial, 751
 "never," a, 210
 noblest station, 200
 oaths, 135
 oaths, I write in water, 475
 preparations long as a goose's leg,
 reason, 277, 461
 slave, 206
 son, art thou a, 326
 the only useless life, 116 thought, what's more unsteadfast, 92
 tongue, surest way to charm a, 447 vengeance, 150
 whole existence, 60, 174
 will, current of a, 377 wisdom, 364
 word a bundle of water, 751 work is never done, 751
 Yes and No, between a, 763 Womanhood and childhood, 193

- Womanhood, miracle of noble, 36
 Womankind, dignity of, 66 faith in, 365
   more joy discovers, 263 thinks the worst of, 167
 Womanliness means motherhood, 33
 Womanly, now is pure, 167
 Womanthrope, a, 392
 Womb of Nature, 214
   of uncreated night, 213 Women, a great lover of, 582 all, good for something, 754 always have something in the back-ground, 724 and bairns keep counsel of what they ken not, 887 and dogs set men by the ears, 887 and geese, no want of noise, 870 and girls must be praised, 734 and men he strove alike to shun, 102 and princes must trust, 275 and wine, 782, 841
   are ambitious, 205
   are angels, wooing, 301
   are more powerful to persuade, 262 are strongest, 422
   as old as they look, 826
   as old as they seem, 746 at home, devils, 392
   attribute not the guilt of a few to all, 631 beat men in ill counsel, 584 best ornament of, 469
   bevy of fair, 218
   born to suffer, 632
   by bad, deceived, 220
   by whom all mischiefs do happen, 446 can accomplish all, 826 cannot be turned, 851 change of, makes bald knaves, 765 come to see and be seen, 682 considered talkative, 596 created for comfort of men, 173 delight in fools, 781 delight to have been asked, 645 devil would have him about, 296 differ as Heaven and Hell, 369 discreet, have no eyes nor ears, 770 easy credulity of, 535 fair; men robust, 66
   fat old, 137
   feel, men work and think, 266
   giddy women, 208
   God hath given to, 75

 Workers of England, be wise, 185 Working and reading, to love, 386

 Workings, hum of mighty, 181 Workman, a little let, lets an ill, 745 any country supports a skilled, 646 done by the hand of a, 728 good, is not overpaid, 744 ill, quarrels with his tools, 755 known by his work, 751
   made by work, 539
   practice makes the, 842
   the glory of a, 70
   without tools, 877
 Workman's most precious possession, 70
 Workmanlike fashion, done in, 606
 Workmen by working, 534

 Workshop of the world, 117
 Worky-days, the, 161
 World, a bright and breathing, 402 a citizen of the, 10
   a citizen of the whole, 680
   a fictile, 71
   a glass which shines, 728 a little foolery governs the, 275 a perpetual see-saw, 722 a spectacle unto the, 432
   a stranger in this breathing, 55
   a very good, that we live in, 443 a, worthless, 52
   all's right with the, 28 and all the world's command, 260 and I shall ne'er agree, 93 and the world's ways, 64 another, for all that live, 340
   as God has made it, 34
   as it is, take the, 852
   as we find it, take the, 865 away, so runs the, 316
   be worth thy winning if the, 125 bestride the narrow, 303 blows and buffets of the, 309 born for the whole, 601 World, brought nothing into this, 435 but as the world, 283
   conspires to praise, 255
   cooings of the, 409
   corners of the, 291
   crested the, 305

   foutra for the, 295
   full of vicissitudes, 62 goes, how this, 306
   good in the lump, 89
   good-bye, proud, 129
   goth so, 150
   governed with little wisdom, 647 half, knows not how half lives, 837 hand that rules the, 380 harmoniously confused, 252 has been harsh, 33

   has nothing to bestow, 92 hated the bad, 35
   his that enjoys it, 857 hollow as an egg-shell, 15

   I despise, 58
   I expect to pass through this, but once, 448
   I have not loved the, 53

 Writ is writ, 54

 Write about it, and about it, 252

- Write accurately rather than much, 513 and read comes by nature, 280

 because all write, 255
 dare not, what I have dared to do, 659
